

Grade 1 Samples

Gail rolled a number cube 3 times. She rolled a 3, 9, 4. She thinks her total is 15.
Is she right? Why or why not?

$$3 + 9 + 4 = 16$$

16 no

Gail rolled a number cube 3 times. She rolled a 3, 9, 4. She thinks her total is 15.
Is she right? Why or why not?

Yes

|||| | | | | | | |

Gail rolled a number cube 3 times. She rolled a 3, 9, 4. She thinks her total is 15.
Is she right? Why or why not?

No
3, 9, 4
000 } 6
000000000
0000

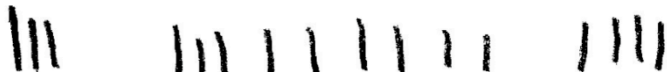

Gail rolled a number cube 3 times. She rolled a 3, 9, 4. She thinks her total is 15.
Is she right? Why or why not?

yes

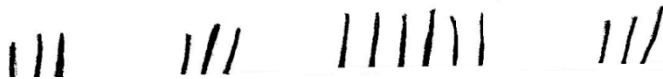

Gail rolled a number cube 3 times. She rolled a 3, 9, 4. She thinks her total is 15.
Is she right? Why or why not?

no bekos she dos not kawnt liens

Gail rolled a number cube 3 times. She rolled a 3, 9, 4. She thinks her total is 15.
Is she right? Why or why not?

No she is not rite.
15

Gail rolled a number cube 3 times. She rolled a 3, 9, 4. She thinks her total is 15.
Is she right? Why or why not?

The right ^{no} answer is 14

$$\begin{array}{r} 3 + 9 + 4 = 14 \\ 1234567891011121314 \end{array}$$